

Greetings and Blessings to everyone!

Our God is so incredibly good and amazing!

Update: The political crisis here is not resolved, but at the moment it is quiet. Honduras is united at the moment in celebration of winning a place to compete in the world cup of soccer. We needed this moment of victory and celebration!

Property: The property construction is advancing daily. It is amazing to watch. If you have facebook you can see the property construction from beginning to this week on Rex's facebook. God has been and continues to be so good and faithful to His work here. Not just the ministry of Living Hope, but of our other missionary friends also.

2nd Women's Conference: We had a change of date for our women's conference, because of the political turmoil, but as God always does, He makes things work out for the best. It will now be the 23rd of January and will continue to use January as our annual conference. It is a great way to start the year and it is also the Day of the Woman here in Honduras, so it will be a special celebration as well. Our theme this year is "Transformed Lives." We are so excited about this conference. We have about 7 churches involved right now and hoping for more. We are expecting 150 to 200 ladies. Please keep this ministry in your prayers as we seek to touch the lives of the women here in Honduras with God's love, grace, mercy, and peace.

An amazing job!!!! I am so blessed and so fortunate that God has allowed me the opportunity to be a teacher here in Honduras. This is an amazing place to teach. I can pray for my kids and with my kids. I can teach Bible to them. I can help them grow in Christian character. I can help them memorize God's Word. (not only in the Christian school, but Rex, Miguel and Eduardo can do that in the public school.) I can see God touching their lives. I can see them growing. I can comfort them, encourage them, cry with them and even hug them to let them know God loves them and someone cares about them. All this in a 3rd world country. I think our schools in the states could learn from this. These kids are the future of this country and this world, and God is allowing me to be part of the education and growth mentally, physically, and spiritually of these kids. I cannot tell you how amazing this job is and what a blessing it is to me. Plus I get to teach my church kids too in Sunday School and see them grow in Christ. I really cannot put into words how incredible it is to be part of this work.

I cannot thank you all enough for allowing God to use you to partner with us in your love and prayers and support so that this ministry can be here in Honduras. We could not do what God is allowing us to be a part of without you allowing God to use you to make it happen here! THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

"Thank you for giving to the Lord,
I am a life that was changed.

Thank you for giving to the Lord,
I am so glad you gave."

You are making a difference for the Lord not only where you, but here in this country too!

We love you all so much!

We are looking forward to seeing many of you at the National Missionary Convention, we have a booth there----so look us up!

We are looking forward to seeing many of you too, while we are in the states visiting churches and family!

In Jesus love and service,

 Christine
